

THE VELVETEEN RABBIT

Read by Grandma Janice

ek2011

The Velveteen Rabbit: or, How Toys Become Real tells the story of a plush toy rabbit and his quest to become real through the love of a child.

The Velveteen Rabbit was first published in 1922. It was the first children's book written by English-American writer Margery Williams. The book would be her most famous. It has been enjoyed by all generations since it was published. Many movies and animated films have been made about this timeless story.

Our production of the classic tale by Margery Williams is brought to you by Kazoomzoom.com. "Grandma Janice" (Janice D. Green) reads it for you. The music was written and performed by zero-project.

This official toy to accompany the release was created by gifted illustrator and animator Mr. Fantoccini.
